Ford Contract Gives $100 Month Pension

Sets Goal For Others; Stops Strike

Detroit, Sept. 29.—(AP)—A unique new contract permitting Ford employees to retire on $100 a month set a goal today for millions of other workers.

The unprecedented thirty month agreement was reached this morning by Ford Motor Co. and the CIO United Auto Workers. It ended a 118-day bargaining battle and, at the last minute, headed off a strike of 115,000 Ford workers.

Under the terms, employees with 30 years service can retire at 65 with full pensions. Ford will pay the entire cost, adding enough to federal social security benefits to bring the total to $100.

No Wage Increase
The new Ford contract calls for no wage increase. It follows broadly the recommendations of President Truman's fact-finding committee in the steel dispute.

Many other unions fighting for economic security undoubtedly will use the contract as a bargaining weapon.

Immediately there was a question whether Ford's grant of benefits equal to 10 cents an hour would boost the firm's prices. Henry Ford II, company president, said frankly in New York he didn't know.

"We have no plan for change in prices at this time," he said. "In view of the pension plan, which is an increase in the cost of labor, no matter what you call it, we'll have to look over the situation carefully."

Will Cost $24,000,000
The pensions will cost Ford an estimated $24,000,000 annually.

The contract was a clear victory for the UAW on one important point: That the company should foot the entire pension bill. The plan is non-contributory on the part of the worker. The employee, however, makes his contribution to the federal social security portion of the plan.

Most of heavy industry has been solidly refusing to grant any pensions to which employees did not contribute. Ford is the first major crack in this wall of opposition.

UAW officials expected the rank-and-file members to ratify the contract quickly. It will be submitted to them, probably Wednesday, and must be approved by Oct. 24. This is considered a formality.

The contract—effective Oct. 1—runs to April 1, 1952. It is the longest ever drawn up in the auto industry. The pension plan is also the first in the car-making field.

Main Points of Plan
1—Employees with 30 years Ford service and 65 years of age can retire with monthly benefits of $100. They must retire at age 68.

2—Employees with 30 years service between 60 and 65 can retire at reduced benefits.

3—Employees with less than 30 years service and 65 years of age can also retire at reduced benefits adjusted to their length of service.

4—Totally disabled employees can retire at 55 with flat benefits of $50 monthly.

5—The pension program starts next March 1 with payments beginning April 1.

6—The company sets aside an estimated $1 cents an hour per worker for pensions (already Ford is contributing 11 cents hourly on an insurance plan).

157 Given 33rd Degree Of Scottish Rite By Masons

Chicago, Sept. 29.—(AP)—Justice Robert H. Jackson of the supreme court and 156 other Masons from 15 northern states have been elected to receive the thirty-third degree of the Scottish rite.

The announcement was made today at the closing session of the 17th annual meeting of the Supreme Council, Thirty-Third Degree, Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite for the northern Masonic jurisdiction.

They will receive the degree next September at Philadelphia. Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York and 152 others who were elected last year received the degree in Chicago last night.

The degree, highest of the rite, is conferred for work in the fraternity and for outstanding contributions to humanity. There are about 2,000 in the jurisdiction.

The council voted an additional $50,000 today to continue a 14 year medical research program on dementia praecox, a mental disease also known as schizophrenia, or split personality. The program already has cost $600,000.

Russia Breaks Mutual Aid Treaty With Yugo

Moscow, Sept. 29.—(AP)—Soviet Russia has broken off her war-born mutual aid treaty with Yugoslavia on grounds that Premier Marshal Tito's government is linked with foreign imperialists in "hostile and disruptive work against the U.S.S.R." The treaty normally would have run until 1955.

The government announced the break tonight.

Its accusation was based on the recent Budapest treason trial, in which former Hungarian Foreign Minister László Rajk and two other high communists were sentenced to death. They were charged with plotting with Americans and Yugoslavs to overthrow Hungary's Communist government and swing the nation into Tito's orbit.

(In Belgrade, there was no immediate official reaction. London political observers speculated that the Soviet action would be followed by scrapping of similar treaties with Yugoslavia by Albania, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Poland and Romania. These nations are joined with Russia in the communist bloc, from which Yugoslavia was expelled in June, 1948.)

The Soviet decision was contained in a note handed by Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko yesterday to Yugoslavia's temporary chargé d'affaires, Lazo Latinovic.

Truman Gets Five Billion Aid Bill

Decatur, Ill., Sept. 29.—(AP)—A proposed water well that produced gas instead has been sealed and forgotten.

The gas well was discovered Friday on a lot in Decatur's northwest suburban area where Leonard Baker and H. H. Morey are building a house. The well dicker hit the gas pocket at 62 feet. The gas burned two days, then quit, then started again Monday. Yesterday it ceased again and the hole was filled with rocks and gravel.

Senate Okays Bill To Boost Wages Of US Officials

Washington, Sept. 29.—(AP)—The Senate tonight passed 62 to 14 a bill to boost the pay of cabinet members and other top level government officials.

It goes to the House which has approved a bill calling for generally larger salary increases for some 240 key executives.

Mr. Truman had urged Senate approval of the House bill.

The Senate bill, calling for increases totalling about $700,000, would raise the pay of cabinet officers to $22,500. They now get $15,000. The House voted $25,000.

The heads of federal agencies and undersecretaries of departments would get increases bringing their salaries to $15,000, or $5,000 less than the House approved.

St. Louis Police Have Evidence Of 'Rackets' In City

St. Louis, Sept. 29.—(AP)—Evidence of "rackets" and payoffs in some sections of the city was reported today by members of the St. Louis board of police commissioners.

All district police commanders were summoned to a special meeting with the board and ordered to stamp out gambling, liquor law violations and prostitution.

Commissioner Daniel G. Church told the police officers: "We have information—not just rumors—that there are rackets going on in some districts—maybe a little out here and there."

Quincy And Adams County Freed From Armed Bandits

Quincy, Ill., Sept. 29.—(AP)—Taverns in Quincy and Adams county lacked slot machines today.

The one armed bandits with the whirling fruit disappeared during the night. No city or county official claimed responsibility for their disappearance, but Sheriff Otis Woodme said he believed the machines will stay out of county taverns.

Their exit followed a meeting of the newly-organized Board of Police and Fire Commissioners with State Attorney John Reardon and Mayor George Meyer. Federal tax records list 509 machines in the county. Meyer said he had instructed Quincy police to guard against any reappearance.

Rockford, Ill., Sept. 29.—(AP)—A husband pumped an iron lung by hand to keep his stricken wife alive today during a tense 30 mile trip to a hospital in a moving van.

Mrs. William Hay, 24, a polio victim, was being transported from the Winnebago County hospital here to the Warren's clinic at Oregon, Ill., where the portable motor of her iron lung went dead.

Hay, 25, immediately manned the hand pump, which had been installed for that emergency. He pumped for a half hour until the trip was completed, his wife smiling encouragement.

Asks New Law To Slow Up Divorces Be Held Invalid
Springfield, Ill., Sept. 29.—(AP)—A Cook county taxpayer today asked the Illinois supreme court to hold invalid a new state law designed to slow down divorces.

Max Bernat of Chicago challenged constitutionality of the 1949 law, which allows any circuit court and the Cook county superior court to create special divisions for consideration of divorce complaints.

Bernat argued that the legislation was "arbitrary, inconsistent and unreasonable" and represented an illegal delegation of legislative power to the judiciary.

The supreme court will decide at its November term whether to go into the merits of Bernat's contentions. If it agrees to do so, a final decision in the case is unlikely before next March or later.

Girl, 13, Slayer Of Boy, 7, Judged Insane By Court
Joliet, Ill., Sept. 29.—(AP)—A plump 13 year old girl who drowned a boy playmate to satisfy an "urge to kill" was found insane today and ordered sent to a mental hospital.

She is Diana Allen who drowned seven year old Charles "Snooky" Johnson in a drainage ditch April 30 while the two were together picking wild flowers.

As a circuit court jury returned its verdict, the girl sat calmly, showing no emotion.

But the victim's mother, Mrs. Rose Johnson jumped to her feet sobbing: "She gets a second chance. What chance did he get?"

Diana, who has been in custody since the slaying, broke away from a deputy sheriff and matron as they were leading her from the courtroom back to jail. The deputy, Roy Dierler, caught her after a short chase.

She fought and shouted, "let me alone. Keep your dirty hands off me. I don't want to go back to jail."

Diana, who gained 20 pounds during her five months in jail, was found suffering from schizophrenia or split personality. Such a person, a physician testified at her trial, can't tell right from wrong.

Technically, the verdict was not guilty because she was insane at the time of the slaying and is insane now.

Tokyo Rose Convicted Of Treason After Jury Deliberates 4 Days
San Francisco, Sept. 29.—(AP)—Mrs. Iva Toguri D'Aquino, Los Angeles born broadcaster on radio Tokyo during the war, was convicted tonight of one of eight charges of treason. She will be sentenced Oct. 6.

An audible "Oh" of apparent disappointment swept Judge Michael J. Roche's federal courtroom when the verdict was announced after four days of deliberation. Most of the spectators had expected an acquittal.

Iva, dubbed "Tokyo Rose" by American GIs who heard her programs on the "Zero Hour," sat with head bowed when the verdict was read. As stoical as she had been during the 12-week trial, she maintained her composure, although earlier in the day she had appeared near collapse.

The count upon which she was convicted was that of making a broadcast concerning the loss of American ships. That paragraph in the eight-count indictment reads: "That on a day during October, 1944, the exact date being to the grand jurors unknown, said defendant, Iva Toguri D'Aquino, did broadcast a radio program in which she stated that the United States was losing the war and that the Japanese were victorious."

Steel Strike Imminent As No Agreement Is Reached

Dynamite Blasts, Rifle Fire Rock Coal Fields; 'Sabotage' Charged

By the Associated Press
Dynamite blasts and rifle fire rocked the nation's coal fields yesterday (Thursday) and a mine official said it was "out and out sabotage" on the part of John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers.

Nearly 15,000 non-union miners were on the job throughout the country in defiance of UMW pickets. Lewis' union quit work 11 days ago in a walkout that has idled 480,000 coal miners.

Meanwhile, hints of a major break in the work stoppage came from widely scattered points on the black map of coal.

From Hazleton, Pa., came a report by the Anthracite tri-district news, UMW publication, that an end of the sympathy walkout of 80,000 hard coal miners is in sight.

But at a White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., conference between the union and northern and western operators, the UMW turned down for a fourth time an offer by the operators to extend the main provisions of the old wage contract until March 31, 1951.

"Every time they (operators) want to issue a statement or go to the country they make that offer," said UMW Vice-President John M. Kennedy. "They know it is not acceptable and does not meet the realities of the situation."

George M. Love, President of the Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal company and chief spokesman of the operators, forecast a coal shortage within two or three weeks if the shutdown continues.

At the same time rumors persisted in the hard coal country that the Anthracite workers would return to the pits Monday.

Hidden riflesmen let loose with a fusillade of shots at a 15-truck coal convoy descending snow shoe mountain in Central Pennsylvania. The trucks were carrying non-union coal from the mines to tipplers where the coal was to be cleared, crushed and loaded on railroad cars.

No one was hurt, but state police officials said at least 14 shots were fired at the convoy heavily guarded by state police. They apparently were aimed at the truck tires. At least seven of the shots hit the trucks. Bullets struck rear tires, ripped into Murgards.

"We didn't know we were being fired upon at first," said State Police Corporal Robert Daily. "But after the first few shots we realized what it was and stopped the caravan."

The big police detail took to the woods to chase the gunmen, but found no one.

The dynamite blasted mine tipplers are located at Grass Flats in Clearfield County, Pa., not far from snow shoe mountain and near Morgantown, Ky.

Robely M. Smith, president of the Juniata Coal company whose tipple was blasted, blamed the attack on UMW pickets.

"There's no doubt about it," he asserted. "It was an out and out case of sabotage."

Contract talks between the CIO industry seemingly were getting no-United Steelworkers and the steel where but they met again tonight. In two important instances, with Bethlehem and Republic, they collapsed completely.

So far federal mediators have not been in on the discussions. But William N. Margolis, assistant director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, and Peter Seitz, its general counsel, sent telegrams tonight to management and union representatives.

They asked both disputing parties to meet with them at 9 a.m. (CST) tomorrow to see if there is some way to halt the impending strike.

Since it takes from 24 to 48 hours to halt steel operations, the banking of furnaces had begun.

Steelworkers' walkouts actually got under way near Pittsburgh, 36 hours before the strike deadline. Crucible Steel company said picket lines formed outside its Midland plant and forced the mill to shut down, idling 7,000. Crucible called it "a full-fledged strike."

The day started with considerable promise.

The Ford Motor Company announced it had reached an agreement on pensions and insurance—the main disagreement in the steel industry, too—with the CIO Auto Workers.

This agreement, it was thought, would put pressure on the steel negotiations. Ford had agreed to pay a pension-and-insurance program that would cost the company 10 cents an hour for each worker.

But if the decision by Ford had any effect on the steel talks, nobody said so. The major companies and the union seemed as far apart as ever on this question:

Should the worker help pay for his pension and insurance program? U. S. Steel, the nation's biggest producer, said yes. So did the No. 2 and 3 producers, Bethlehem Steel company and Republic Steel Corporation.

House Of Commons Gives Laborites Vote Of Confidence
London, Sept. 29.—(AP)—The House of Commons gave Prime Minister Attlee's labor government an overwhelming vote of confidence tonight in a showdown on devaluation that might have forced Britain into a new national election immediately.

The government's action cutting the value of the pound sterling from $4.03 to $2.80 as a means of bettering Britain's economic position was approved 342 to five, with members of the conservative opposition abstaining.

A motion of no confidence proposed by Winston Churchill, stocky leader of the conservatives, was defeated a few minutes earlier by a vote of 350 to 312.

The 212 votes in opposition equals the highest vote ever cast against the labor government since it took office in 1945. The government bill for nationalization of the steel industry encountered the opposition of 212 members Nov. 17, 1948, but passed.

If the government had failed to win on the motion of confidence, it would have been forced to resign. This would have necessitated a new parliamentary election at once. Now the government is again empowered to decide when the election will be held. Its term of office normally expires next July.

One Small Steel Company Gives In

Pittsburgh, Sept. 29.—(AP)—One small steel company today accepted the CIO United Steelworkers terms but all other signs pointed to a nationwide steel strike at midnight Friday.

As other companies banked their furnaces—and some workers already were leaving their jobs—Portsmouth, O., steel corporation signed a contract to break the steel industry's united front.

It agreed to foot the pension and insurance bill for its 4,000 employees. Previously all steel companies had insisted that if their workers wanted a social security program they would have to help pay for it.

There was no indication that the Portsmouth agreement would set the pattern for the steel industry.

Picture Bleak
Everywhere the picture looked bleak.

Contract talks between the CIO industry seemingly were getting no-United Steelworkers and the steel where but they met again tonight. In two important instances, with Bethlehem and Republic, they collapsed completely.

Pope Denounces AI Of Humans
Castel Gandolfo, Sept. 29.—(AP)—Pope Pius XII announced tonight that artificial insemination is immoral and against nature in the eyes of the Roman Catholic church.

The Pope said any child born of this means will be considered by the church to be illegitimate if the donor of the semen is not the husband of the child's mother.

The pontiff addressed delegates of 30 nations who attended the fourth international congress of Catholic doctors. He received them in the Swiss guard hall of his summer palace here.

2 Youths Jailed On Arson Charges
Champaign, Ill., Sept. 29.—(AP)—Two 17-year-old farm youths were jailed today on charges of arson. Authorities said the boys made oral statements that they set fire to a rural school house and haystack.

Held under bonds of $5,000 each for a hearing Monday are Mont Cessna and John Marron, of nearby Hope both seniors at Armstrong high school.

Both fires occurred Monday. The school blaze caused damage estimated at $1,000 before it was put out by volunteers.

Boyle's Column

A Wise Man Of The Woods

By HAL BOYLE
Inlet, N. Y., Sept. 29.—(P)—There isn't a better woodsman in all the Adirondack mountains than Gerald Kenwell.

Kenwell, every deer in the hills by its stump," say his neighbors. Kenwell is a catfaced man of 62, with the posture of an Indian and eyes as fresh as Eden, he can still sing a fresh-killed zuck deer over his shoulder and tote it miles to the hunting camp he has run for 32 years. The camp is in the center of a 50-mile stretch of virgin wilderness.

Many city-bred people picture a hunting guide as a brush-faced, tobacco-chewing illiterate who never had the common sense to come to town. Gerald doesn't fit into that portrait at all. He is a courteous, well-bred, widely read man who stayed in the woods by choice. And he has his own opinion of people who crowd their lives out in stone cities and never wake up in the smell of balsam.

"Nature put you on earth to keep busy," he said, and "you'll keep busy—or pay the penalty." Gerald doesn't have much respect for modern-day guides who go to the forest in automobiles. He likes to earn about the real oldtimers, and that's the way he lives.

Two of his heroes are Fred Hass, taken away in the prime of his youth at 84—and "French Louie," a hermit-like Canadian lumberman carry out two bucks on his broad back, is a legend among Adirondack hunters. He could use any tool, and once skinned a wolf with a safety pin.

"Fred was what you would call a determined man," recalled Gerald. "Never would give up. Never would back away from a bear either. Used to go right into their caves after them."

"One time Fred caught a bear making a bed of spruce boughs in the deep snow. Fred was on snow shoes and didn't have a gun, but he said 'I want that bear.'"

"So he tied his hatchet to a long pole and swung it at the bear, trying to bash in its skull. The bear just grabbed the hatchet and sat on it. Then Fred tied his knife to another pole and crept up and tried to stab the bear to death. The bear finally grabbed this pole, too, and I don't know who was madder—him or Fred. He tried to grab Fred, but couldn't catch him in the deep snow."

"Finally Fred snowshoed back to his cabin, grabbed up a gun and came back and got his bear."

Lived Alone

In his later years French Louie insisted on living alone in the wilderness, and developed his own brand of economics. He had a garden, a few chickens and a few deer.

"He called on him once and found one end of the cabin piled with eggs," said Gerald. "When I asked him what he was going to do with them, he said:

"Oh, mix them with a little venison and feed them back to the hens, I guess."

Gerald's own father was a pioneer who settled in the mountains and built his own town road 55 miles to the nearest store.

Some young men once asked the Elder Kenwell what was the most fearsome noise he had heard in the woods. A bear's growl? A wolf's howl? The cry of a panther? "Twasn't any of them," allowed the old man. "The wuss noise I ever heard was one winter about the last of February when I woke up and heard my wife scraping the bottom of the flour barrel."

"Knew I'd have to snowshoe 55 miles for more flour."

Renewed Search For 2 Trans-Ocean Pilots Called Off

New York, Sept. 29.—(P)—A renewed plane and ship search for two missing Italian trans-Atlantic fliers was called off late today after the mysterious message which inspired it was exposed as a hoax.

The mysterious message had given hope that the two airmen—John M. Brondello and Camillo Barlogia—might be drifting in the Atlantic 300 miles east of the Bahamas. They had been missing 12 days.

However, reports from Rome late in the day indicated that the whole thing was based on a false message received by "telepathic currents," not by radio.

At the same time, the coast guard announced here that the Italian embassy in Washington, after a series of urgent inquiries in Rome, had reported "all authorities regard case as hoax."

The coast guard advised the air force and navy, and the rescue effort organized by the services was abandoned.

The air force had sent B-17s from Bermuda and San Juan, Puerto Rico. The navy had planned a dawn-to-dusk hunt with its planes tomorrow.

Dr. Louis Belinson Tells Optimists Of Work At Hospital

Institutional workers who devote their efforts to the care and treatment of the mentally ill are engaged in a noble profession, Dr. Louis Belinson, superintendent of the Jacksonville State hospital, said in an address to the Optimist club Wednesday.

Dr. Belinson, who was appointed head of the local hospital Sept. 1, said the Jacksonville hospital is one of nine major institutions in Illinois. It provides care and treatment for 3,200 patients, and has an employee population of 700 persons, especially trained in the duties.

The hospital superintendent said that the State of Illinois has made great strides in recent years in treatment of the mentally handicapped, and in acquiring the public with scientific services offered by the state hospitals. He explained how the state hospitals work with schools and various welfare organizations in preventing mental illness of individuals.

Dr. Belinson was introduced by John T. Taylor, business manager of the hospital, and program chairman for the month.

It's A Long Trail To Robbers

Washington.—(P)—Two youths displayed a pistol and a hunting knife and robbed Charles Gregg of $7. Fleeing, they dropped their weapons. Police found the pistol was a toy. On the knife's leather sheath they observed blurred writing. Infra-red light disclosed this as a name and address.

Checking the address, they learned the person named had not lived there for seven years. Eventually locating him, a 14-year-old boy, they were told he had sold the knife two weeks earlier. Finally the officers located the home of the youth who had bought the knife. He and a pal turned out to be the robbers.

Hemorrhoids
Give Warning
Through Bleeding

By Edwin P. Jordan, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

The most common first sign of piles or hemorrhoids is bleeding. Generally there is no severe pain, though itching is frequent. If such warning signals are ignored, the bleeding is likely not only to keep on but will get worse. Sometimes hemorrhoids develop suddenly after some strain, but more often they set in gradually. Hemorrhoids are clusters of enlarged veins at or around the outlet of the rectum. They may be internal or external. Chronic constipation, a long continued cough, childbirth, and muscular strain from work are examples of what will tend to slow down the flow of blood through the hemorrhoidal veins and favor their enlargement in the form of piles or hemorrhoids.

The treatment of piles includes avoidance of those causes which tend to make them worse, namely, such things as chronic constipation, or unnecessary muscular strain. Once hemorrhoids have developed, however, this is not enough to make the veins return to their natural state. Other things have to be done.

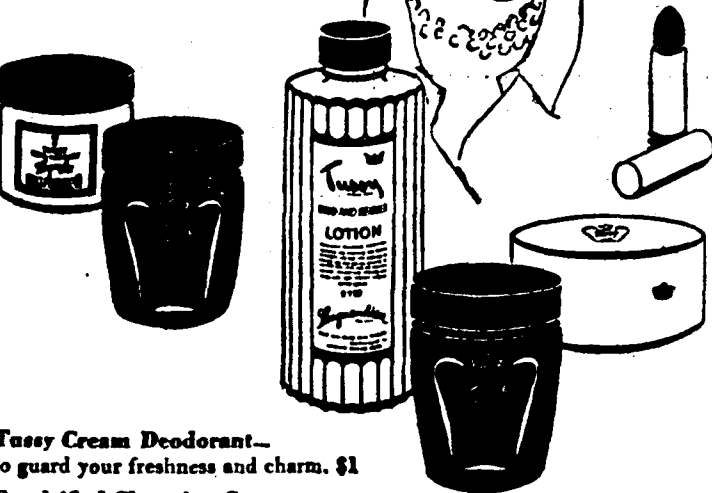

Surgery Often Used

When the veins are entirely internal and do not protrude, they can sometimes be treated by injection of a chemical. This treatment, however, is not favored to any great extent and has some drawbacks. More often whether the enlarged veins are internal, external, or both, the best treatment is by surgery. The enlarged veins are cut out

LONG'S PHARMACY
69 EAST SIDE SQUARE

THEY'RE ON THEIR WAY TO THE FAIR—Farm boy Leland Mathes of McPherson, Kan., wanted to go to the fair but he still had 85 acres of his dad's wheat land to plant. To the rescue came three neighbor boys with tractors and drills. Working as a team the boys planted the 85 acres in three hours and were off to the fair. Note how the tractors are staggered so the drivers don't have to ride through the dust of the leading drills.

Hemorrhoids are extremely common. Just why this should be so is not known. Perhaps it has something to do with our upright posture or the sedentary life which so many people lead today and which favors the stagnation of the blood.

Note: Dr. Jordan is unable to answer individual questions from readers. However, each day he will answer one of the most frequently asked questions in his column.

Centenary Plans College Fellowship

Centenary Methodist Church is developing its own program for the college men and women who come to Jacksonville during the school year. Recognizing the need for some new type of college activity, Rev. John W. Collins made a study of several new experiments that are now going on in churches throughout the country. Centenary church is now joining in this experiment which is to reach college students.

Mrs. Jacqueline Tankersley will be the sponsor of the new fellowship group. The first meeting will be held on Sunday morning, October 2, at 8 a. m. at Centenary church. The idea of the college fellowship is to have a light breakfast, a brief period of devotion, and remainder of the hour for fellowship. It is not a dress up occasion but one of plain clothes. The program will be planned entirely by the students of the fellowship.

When Yale and Harvard meet in the Yale Bowl on Nov. 19, it will be the 66th game between the rivals.

Former Student Nurse Admits Cashing Checks

Betty Turpin cried while being questioned Wednesday night at the Morgan county jail—she had shed tears several times after her arrest—but this time she is believed to have told the truth.

Betty, 20, who started out to be a trained nurse when she was side-tracked, admitted in the presence of Sheriff and Mrs. Ralph Bourn that she has passed fraudulent checks in a number of Illinois towns.

The young woman is reported to have confessed to putting over eleven worthless checks at Springfield, six at Bloomington, three at Joliet and one at Aurora. The checks were from $12 to $20, and were cashed in retail shops and stores.

After thinking for a little while, Betty added stores at Decatur, Champaign, Quincy, Galesburg and Rockford to the list. She said she couldn't remember them all, but thought that she cashed about two or three checks in each town.

Betty's luck deserted her after she arrived in Jacksonville. She was picked up by the police department when she was accused of cashing a $25 check at Long's drug store last Friday afternoon. Earlier in the day she had attempted to cash a check at Mac's Clothes shop, police reported.

Through several sessions of questioning, the girl maintained that the $25 check was given her by her employer, a Mrs. Thomas "on rural route 2." Authorities failed to locate a Mrs. Thomas in that section of the county.

Police and the county officials continued work on the case, gathering certain information which helped to get a confession. The girl is a graduate of Lincoln, Ill., high school and was a student nurse at St. John's hospital in Springfield for a time, before she started her alleged round of cold-checking.

She had already been bound over under $1,000 bond to await action of the grand jury.

Field men of Columbiana Seed company from Missouri, Kentucky, Tennessee and Illinois were called in to attend the tours of inspection and open house.

Court Rules For John W. Bruening In Divorce Suit

A ruling in favor of John W. Bruening in his contested divorce suit against Leah C. Bruening was handed down by Judge Clem Smith in circuit court Wednesday. The court rules that Mrs. Bruening was guilty of extreme and repeated cruelty.

Judge Smith ordered that a decree be prepared in accordance with his finding. The litigation originally started as a partition suit brought by John W. Bruening while he was still residing with his wife at their farm home northwest of Chapin last November. Mrs. Bruening later filed a counterclaim for divorce, alleging extreme and repeated cruelty on the part of her husband. Mr. Bruening then filed a cross-complaint for divorce on the same grounds.

Trial of the case which was held earlier this month was hotly contested. Judge Smith took the matter under advisement until Sept. 28. Among the witnesses were Bernard Bruening, a son, who testified for his mother, and Mrs. Melba Stewart, a daughter, who appeared as a witness for her father.

There is a further controversy between the parties with respect to their property interests. Court officials said that a further hearing would be held to determine the issues in that matter. Edward J. Flynn and Harry G. Story represented Mr. Bruening in the divorce suit, and Bellatti, Arnold & Fay represented Mrs. Bruening.

Law Wanted To Curb Vandals

Washington—(P)—District of Columbia commissioners are considering a proposal for a law that may cut down on vandalism in vacant buildings. The commissioners' regulations advisory committee, upset at police reports of teen-age boys' entering and damaging vacant buildings, and "sometimes throwing drinking parties," recommended the law. For one thing they proposed it be made illegal to enter a vacant building. There's nothing against it in present law.

HICKORY, WALNUT TREES IN COUNTY GROW BUMPER CROP

Hickory and walnut trees in Morgan county, which have been "loaded" all summer, are now dropping a bumper crop of nuts. Even before a hard frost the nuts began falling, giving those who like to lay away their own supply something to do.

The Lake Jacksonville area has a number of hickory trees which have yielded large crops. But every timber pasture in Central Illinois offers something in the way of nut meats. Find a hickory or walnut tree this year and it is almost certain to be a producer.

Nut meats gathered in Illinois autumn sunshine are used in many ways to delight the palates of consumers. Children like to get a brick and hammer, with which they crack nuts and devour them by the hour. Hickory nuts when mixed with cookie dough put a taste there that is truly distinctive. Black walnuts are used by those who like to make candy, or are eaten just for what they are worth.

This is the time of year when many grade school boys and girls exhibit walnut-stained hands, browner than an Indian's. Teachers look with horror on this seasonal disfiguration, knowing that the stain will linger until most of the walnut crop has been picked up and hulled.

IT ALL DEPENDS ON WHOSE OX IS GORLED—That cat-and-canary grin on Russian Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky's face, left, appeared when he learned President Truman had announced a Russian atomic explosion. A few days later the grin came off—replaced by the darkly serious expression at right. The cause: Vishinsky had to sit and "take it" while British Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin castigated Russia's obstruction of true peace progress.

City Of Sterling Began As Two Rival Communities More Than 110 Years Ago

Sterling, Ill., Sept. 29.—(P)—Had a tossed coin not fallen as it did 110 years ago, this story would be datelined Pipsissaway.

Sterlin began as two rival towns, Harrisburg on the east and Chatham on the west along Third street, still the principal artery of the city. Between the two was a broad street running north and south and called, logically, Broadway.

A mutual desire to secure the county seat of Whiteside county from Lyndon resulted in a meeting in 1838 of representatives of "East of Broadway" and "West of Broadway" at Broadway to toss a coin to decide which committee should name the united city.

Fortunately, the choice fell to the Chatham committee and the city was named Sterling after Colonel Sterling of Pennsylvania, a personal friend of one of the christening fathers, and the grandfather of Fred E. Sterling, lieutenant governor of Illinois from 1921 to 1929.

Held Out For Indian The Harrisburgers, led by Hezekiah Brink, acknowledged founder of Sterling, were holding out for the good old Indian name of Pipsissaway. The county seat? It's in Morrison now, but that's another story.

Rock Falls, which lies just across Rock River from Sterling and forms with it a community estimated at 20,000 in population, also began under a different name.

In 1837 a city was laid out on the present site of Rock Falls and was named Rapids City, principal reason for establishing the city here, failed, discouraging settlement. Even the last of the Winnebago Indians moved out in 1844.

Then in 1867, an unusually astute former music teacher named Smith bought half interest in the water power of the Sterling Hydraulic Company, which controlled a dam across Rock river, constructed a race from the dam, and induced capitalists to establish factories along the site, which at his suggestion was named Rock Falls.

Heart of Hardware The Sterling Rock-Falls community long has considered itself "The Heart of American Hardware."

But industry of the community is remarkably diversified, with a resultant economic stability. The 1929 depression did not hit Sterling-Rock Falls with the severity experienced by many areas.

The Chamber of Commerce lists 37 manufacturing plants in the community. Two dams across Rock river supply power for electricity used in vast amounts by Lafal factories.

Besides three large builders' hardware manufacturing plants and numerous smaller satellite companies, there is a steel and wire mill and a large bolt and nut factory, both of which operate their own furnaces and mills for drawing the steel wire and rods used in making their products; agricultural implement factories; several foundries, both ferrous and non-ferrous; and numerous large and small machine shops.

Politically, this area out-Vermonts Vermont as a Republican stronghold. It has never gone Democratic in a presidential election and only three Democrats ever have been elected to county office.

Young Woman's Club At Concord Has Wiener Roast

Concord—A wiener roast was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Nickel for members of the Young Woman's club and their families. DECEMBER WHEAT, CORN CONTRACTS SLIGHTLY LOWER

Chicago, Sept. 29. —(P)—While December wheat and corn contracts backed down on the Board of Trade today, distant deliveries gave an exhibition of strength. All soybean deliveries firmed after early weakness when commission houses became aggressive buyers.

In corn, traders felt that some of the good demand for cash corn may dry up with the end of this month. They reasoned that a part of the buying came from those who had been short when September futures were closed out and needed to acquire grain to make deliveries by the end of this month.

Receipts were: wheat 9 cars, corn 126, oats 24, rye 1, barley 55, soybeans 62.

Wheat closed 14 lower to 14 higher, December $2.14-2.15; corn was unchanged to 4 lower, December $1.81-1.82; oats were 1-1 lower, December 67-1/2; rye was 1 lower to 1 higher, December $1.45; soybeans were 1 to 1 cent higher, November $2.27-1/2, and land was 5 cents lower to 5 cents a hundred pounds higher, October $10.82.

New York Stock Market

New York, Sept. 29. —(P)—A forenoon gust of buying lifted the stock market out of an opening rut today. Demand focused on the railroad group but there was enough left over to spill into other sections of the market. Gains ranged to around 2 points. Steel and motors were prominently displayed in the plus column.

Higher prices were paid for Nickel Plate, N. Y. Central, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, Montgomery Ward, Sears Roebuck and Distillers Corp.

A couple of aircraft stocks, popular earlier this week, backed down a bit, among them Boeing and Douglas.

Corporate bonds tended downward.

WANTS 45 YARDS

Philadelphia, Sept. 29. —(P)—Steve Van Buren, Philadelphia Eagles, will be looking for 45 yards when the National football league champions meet the Detroit Lions in Detroit Monday.

Steve needs that many yards to crack the league yardage record of 3,860 made in 10 seasons of play by Green Bay's Clark Hinkle. The Eagles' ace has picked up 3,816 in six years of play-for-pay ball.

Between 1927 and 1939, New York Yankees lost only three games in seven World Series.

Dodgers Accept Ticket Orders

Brooklyn, N. Y., Sept. 29. —(P)—Requests for world series tickets are now being accepted by the Brooklyn Dodgers, who trail the St. Louis Cardinals by one game in the National League race.

The Brooklyn club announced that reserve seats are $6 and are sold in strips of three games for $18. Box seats cost $28, sold in strips of three games for $24. A 50 cent mailing charge goes with each order.

Requests should be mailed to Brooklyn Baseball Club, 215 Motague Street, Brooklyn 2, N. Y.

ROCKWELL KENT IN GOOD CONDITION

Plattsburgh, N. Y., Sept. 29. —(P)—Rockwell Kent, artist and author, was reported in good condition today following an emergency appendectomy at Physicians hospital. Kent, 67, underwent the operation last night. His home is at Ausable Forks, near here.

ANOTHER HORSEMAN—Elmer Layden, Jr., is attempting to follow in the flying footsteps of his father, Notre Dame fullback of Four Horsemen fame and later head coach. The 19-year-old sophomore halfback matriculated from Chicago's Loyola High.

Cardinals Report All World Series Tickets Are Sold

St. Louis, Sept. 29. —(P)—The mob gathered as the midnight deadline neared. The crowd pushed from the rear, and several persons were pinned against the wall. Women screamed. There were angry shouts for more room.

Cars were triple parked on nearby streets. Streetcars were caught in the jam. Extra police were called out to clear the streets and restore order.

The main St. Louis post office was the scene, and unprepared postal workers reeled under the impact.

Baseball fans were posting their applications for tickets to World Series games that will be played in St. Louis if the Cardinals win the National League pennant.

The first delivery this morning swamped Cardinal office workers with 6,000 special delivery letters and more than 28,000 pieces of regular mail. The club had announced that applications posted before today would not be honored.

A Cardinal spokesman pleaded: "If you haven't already mailed your application, please don't. With the mail already received and that expected later today, we will have far more requests for tickets than we'll be able to fill."

M.S.M. League Football Dope

By Bob Duerer
Biggest game on this week's card finds the Waverly Scotties at Auburn Friday night to tangle with the Auburn Trojans. This game will be the initial conference tilt for both schools. These two ball clubs are currently the only two undefeated teams in the M.S.M. Both schools retained their perfect slate with close victories last week. Waverly was a 24-12 winner over Kincaid and Auburn edged out Liliopolis 13-6.

St. James officially open the conference action with a 10-2 win over Girard last week which tabs the Tradersmen as one of the real dark horses in the M.S.M. Auburn is rated as the other team to watch.

Staunton is literally moping up all of the M.S.M. Latest victim of the South Central school's onslaught was Virden who followed in a similar line as that of Nokomis, losing 20-6. The Bulldogs hope to snap back into their winning ways against another South Central school, Carlinville, there Friday night. Nokomis bounced back from their loss with a 13-0 victory over Divernon in a non-conference game, last Friday at Auburn.

Elsewhere action will find St. James at Divernon in another non-conference game, Girard will be idle.

Fans have already tabbed three games as the games that may settle the loop title. October 14—Virden at Nokomis; October 21—Waverly at Nokomis; November 3—Virden at Waverly.

Bucky Walters Released As Head Of Cincinnati Reds

Cincinnati, Sept. 23. —(P)—Bucky Walters, who failed to develop the Cincinnati Reds into a winning team this year, was released as manager today.

Inexperience was given by Warren Giles, general manager, as the reason for letting the once great right handed pitcher go.

He will be retained in the organization, Giles said, but it was not announced what job he will fill.

Walters, a hero to the local fans even as his Reds slumped into seventh place just barely ahead of the cellar-ridden Chicago Cubs, left Cincinnati today.

Chicago, Sept. 29. —(P)—The Chicago White Sox today announced the purchase of Kenneth Holcombe, 31-year-old right handed pitcher from Sacramento of the Pacific coast league.

General manager Frank Lane, who announced the deal, said Holcombe was purchased for an undisclosed amount of cash. The pitcher, who had previous major league chances with the New York Yankees and Cincinnati Reds, will report to the White Sox for spring training at Pasadena, Calif., next March 1.

Paul Stroud and his six-manners will play the role of villains Saturday afternoon. They travel to Franklin where they'll tangle with the local heroes in a grid struggle billed as the spotlight attraction on a two-day homecoming card.

The afternoon performance will be the only one of its kind in the new 2-C conference. After last night's freeze-out, at Mercedia we'd welcome more at games under "old Sol." This premature winter weather is rapidly swaying us to the side of Cup owner P. K. Wrigley who claims that some sports are still designed for the sun.

He may even make a Cub fan out of us. After the Cardinals let us down yesterday, we're gonna have to do something drastic. But, no! We won't give up the ship that easily. Besides there's that world series ticket order we placed.

A touch of irony was added to the Redbirds' decline yesterday. Their bitter defeat came on the heels of a news dispatch announcing that all the prized world series ducats for Sportsman's park seats had been sold.

Both the American and National league leads have been changing with the rapidity of a chorine in a burley-cue show. All Joe Fan can be certain of is that one cl 'v will cop each flag and then one of those will go on to win the series.

They might take the league representatives off the bottom of the standings. There's no doubt about who's who there.

We received an inspiring letter from our one-time associate Chas. Bellatti. He's still garbed in army togs and is now serving time at Fort Myer, Virginia. The dispatch was mailed in Washington, D. C., so evidently army life is smiling kindly on Charley. More guys have been enlisted in Washington, D. C., than any other city in the USA. The ones that don't reenlist take their discharge and find a job near Arlington Farms.

France Pushes Iron Ore Mining
Saarbruecken. —(P)—Nearly 2,500,000 tons of iron-ore, representing more than nine per cent of France's annual production, was sent to the Saar (which is economically united with France) during 1948.

According to the yearly report of the French iron-ore syndicate, total production of the French mines in 1948 was 25.2 million tons, showing a sharp recovery from the post-war low of 5.3 million tons to which it had fallen in 1945. Even so, 1948 production was only about half of that chalked up for 1929 (48 million tons).

New machinery of American and French origin is being used to boost production further and the amount of available labor has been increased as result of the unions in Eastern France withdrawing their objection to the men working more than a 48-hour week. Many now work 48 hours.

Bob Kraushaar takes a slightly revised starting Crimson lineup to Quincy tonight as his JHS footballers hit the road in quest of their first win this season.

To date, the Crimson gridders have lost one contest, the opener to Pittsfield, and gained a 12-12 tie with Winchester in the other. The Kraushaars travel to Quincy tonight with only one thought in mind, to get a full house, one loss, one tie and one win. At the same time they'll be trying to avenge a loss suffered to Quincy last season.

Most startling change in the local high school lineup is noted in the backfield. Only one back who started

Pigeon To Travel To Milwaukee To Watch Playoffs

Indianapolis, Sept. 29.—(P)—Podner, the pigeon with the beady-eyed whammy, is on his way to Milwaukee to hex the Brewers in tonight's American association playoff game.

The Indianapolis news is flying Podner to the Milwaukee park to provide extra aid to the wavering Indianapolis Indians. The tribe won the first three games of the series here but has lost two straight in Milwaukee.

Podner, who is crippled, was picked up outside the Indian dressing room by Les Fleming, first baseman. His hexing powers are believed in the wigwam to be the strongest since one-eyed Connolly.

The news queried Jim "Hump" Pierce, tribe trainer, if the Redskins needed some fancy on-the-scene hexing of the opposition at tonight's game.

"Send him along. We'll try anything now," said Hump.

Podner didn't seem anxious to go and it took a 30-minute scramble in the Indian dressing room to capture him.

Meredosia Six Rolls To Easy Win Over Chandlerville

Howard Savole's Meredosia Indians steamrolled to a 36-8 victory over an impotent Chandlerville outfit in the 2-C six-man football playoffs at night.

Both teams started slowly in the chilled night air, with the Indians finally grabbing a 6-0 advantage as the first quarter ended. Halfback Joe Newman climaxed a series of nice end runs when he sailed across from the Chandlerville five yard line.

The second quarter was highlighted by some fast and furious scoring by Meredosia. Tony Simon scored the second Dosh TD immediately after the quarter opened. Six plays later Indian Joe Newman intercepted a Chandlerville pass and romped 20 yards to pay dirt.

Roger Henderson, reserve Meredosia ball-carrier, tallied for the Indians on a 40-yard dash through right tackle. A few plays later Henderson brought the halftime score to 30-0 when he tallied on a reverse from 10 yards out. A variety of passes, kicks and plunges failed to garner a single extra point for the Savole-coached athletes.

The third quarter passed uneventfully with neither team being able to score. The chilly atmosphere stiffened fingers and prompted several fumbles by both teams.

Chandlerville came to life long enough in the fourth quarter to score a safety and touchdown for eight points. Comet quarterback Jack Marcy nabbed a Dosh ball-carrier in his own end zone for a safety, and when the Indians kicked to Chandlerville, Marcy grabbed the short boot and raced 40 yards to tally the only visiting touchdown.

Meredosia's Dick Simon heaved a 25 yard aerial to Indian End Norrup to register the 36th point for the hosts as the game ended.

The U. S. coast guard said an army plane already had left San Juan, Puerto Rico, for the location given—a point due east of the middle section of the Bahamas group.

The message indicated the fliers were alive and relayed from the Italian Marine radio which picked up a blind message.

Eveland Hearing Set For Oct. 5

Paris, Ill., Sept. 29.—(P)—A three judge hearing in the school board's fight to oust Ernie Eveland from his faculty has been set for Oct. 5 at Springfield.

Eveland was removed recently as high school basketball coach and assigned as part-time physical education instructor in an elementary school. That action was taken under a circuit court order which held that the board had the right to transfer him to another job but denied its right, under the teacher tenure act, to fire him.

The three judge hearing in the Illinois Appellate Court will be on a school board motion to dissolve the circuit court's temporary injunction which restrains the board from firing Eveland. The circuit court ruled that Eveland's salary must not be reduced because of his transfer.

The litigation was begun last spring when the board tried to dismiss Eveland, then high school coach, on grounds of insubordination.

Football Briefs

WILDCATS PUNT
Evanston, Ill., Sept. 29.—(P)—Tom Worthington and Don Burson, outstanding Northwestern kickers, went through a long punting drill today as the squad continued preparations for the Pittsburgh game.

Coach Bob Voigts said defensive Halfback Peeewe Day, who was injured last week, probably will play against the Panthers.

Voigts planned a light tapering off drill tomorrow.

ILLINI TAPERS OFF
Champaign, Ill., Sept. 29.—(P)—Fullback Bert Schmidt and End Marshall Smith worked out with the Illinois football squad today for the first time this week as the Illini went through a tapering off drill for Wisconsin.

Coach Ray Eliot said Tony Klimmek, regular left end who had an infected hand, will be able to play at least part of the game against the Badgers.

JOCKEYING FOR POSITION—Gordon Richards, left, and the British and American champions rode in the same race for the first time. Richards, England's top kick with 3905 winners, seems pretty cocky, and not without reason. He won on the favorite, Wat Tyler. Longdon finished eighth on one of Aga Khan's horses.

Two Fliers, Lost Since Sept. 17, Reported Adrift

New York, Sept. 29.—(P)—TWA announced today it had received a dispatch from its Paris office indicating two Italian fliers, missing since Sept. 17 in a transatlantic flight, were adrift in their plane near the Bahamas Islands.

The fliers, John M. Brondello and Camillo Baroglio, were on a planned non-stop flight from the Azores to New York in a single-engine plane.

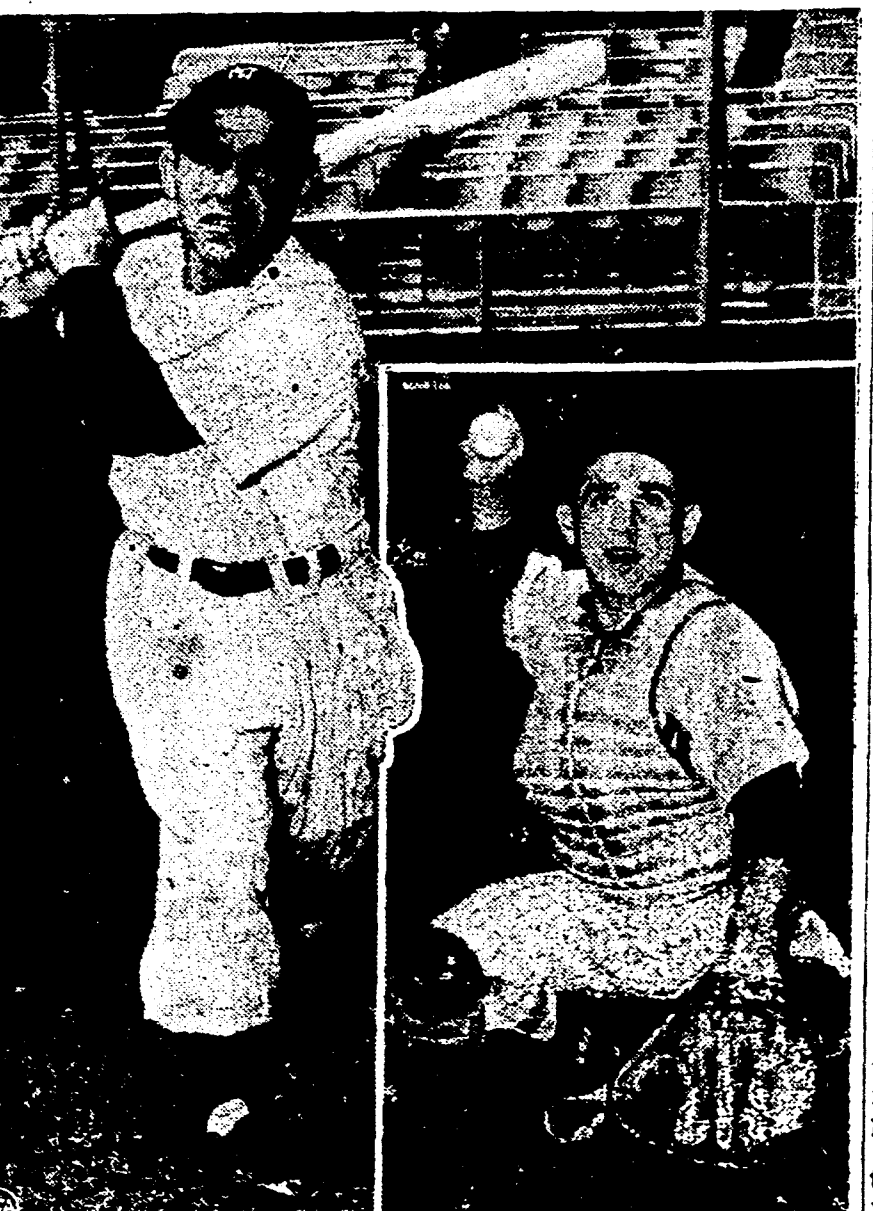

The U. S. coast guard said an army plane already had left San Juan, Puerto Rico, for the location given—a point due east of the middle section of the Bahamas group.

The message indicated the fliers were alive and relayed from the Italian Marine radio which picked up a blind message.

The coast guard said the blind message said "Alive drifting near Bahamas. Insufficient food. Radio inoperative. No search planes sighted."

NEW MONGOL STATE ESTABLISHED

Hong Kong, Sept. 29.—(P)—Establishment of a new anti-communist autonomous Mongolian republic claiming jurisdiction over 1,000,000 people of Inner Mongolia was announced here today.

SEJAT MAN—Bucky Harris gave up on Yogi Berra as a catcher last season, but the ignited Italian from The Hill in St. Louis has received and thrown brilliantly for the Yankees this season, and Casey Stengel has his long-range bat for the run down the stretch.

State Prep Grid Teams Get Down To Business

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 29.—(P)—Downstate Illinois prep football leagues knuckle down to the business of picking 1949 champions in games Friday and Saturday.

Title competition opens in the rugged Big Eight conference Friday with bouts matching Elgin and Joliet, both owning two warmup wins in as many starts, and sending Freeport to LaSalle-Peru.

Stiffer engagements are booked in the Big 12, Suburban, North Egyptian and other circuits where hostilities got under way last week or earlier.

Because of its touchdown punch against tougher foes, the big Elgin outfit seems to have an edge over Joliet's speedier hosts. Freeport and LaSalle-Peru stack up about even but weaker than in former years.

Salem Invades Flora
Down south, interest centers on Salem's invasion of Flora Friday. These two unbeaten foes, along with Lawrenceville, apparently hold the key to the North Egyptian crown. Salem and Lawrenceville already have met in a 7-7 deadlock.

In the northwest scramble, Molire's powerful defending titelholders can pull out in front by handling Kewanee a third straight loss.

Two leading contenders in the Suburban race tackle apparently outclassed opponents in league tilts Saturday. Evanston entertains Highland Park, soundly licked a week ago by Oak Park, and New Trier of Winnetka plays at home against Morton of Cicero.

Danville To Urbana
A heavy program in midstate's Big 12 conference is on tap Friday. It leads Danville to Urbana, Mattoon to Decatur and Peoria Manual to Lincoln, with the visiting elevens ruling as favorites.

Another formidable Big 12 entry, Springfield, takes on a strong city rival in Cathedral Catholic boys high school Saturday night. Both teams have perfect two game charts at stake.

Moosheart, holder of downstate's longest winning streak, travels to New Kensington, Pa., in search of its 17th triumph without a defeat or tie. The contest is on Friday.

Family Of Ten Escape Flames Of New Home

Waukegan, Ill., Sept. 29.—(P)—Fire brought a sudden and tragic end to the happiness of a family of ten enjoyed briefly yesterday after moving into their new house.

The Ernal Dickson family spent only a few hours in their new five-room frame house north of here before fire destroyed the structure. Flames also claimed all the possessions of the Dicksons.

The family escaped without injury. Dickson's eight children range in age from two to 18.

The house was still without electric wiring. Gasoline lamps were used for lighting, and sheriff's police said Dickson told them that one lamp exploded as he lighted it, setting the house on fire.

Father Of Two Given 123 Years For Raping Child

Mt. Carroll, Ill., Sept. 29.—(P)—Thomas Hoggatt, 29, must serve 123 years for raping a nine-year-old girl—and he must spend each anniversary of the crime in solitary confinement.

Hoggatt was sentenced to this penalty yesterday by Circuit Court Judge George C. Dixon. He pleaded guilty.

Judge Dixon also ordered that Hoggatt, for the first year of his sentence, must spend the 17th of each month in solitary. For the rest of his sentence he will spend each Aug. 27—the crime's anniversary—in solitary.

The length of the sentence makes Hoggatt ineligible for parole until he is 70 years old. He is the father of two children.

Former Bishop Of Athens Dies

Athens, Sept. 29.—(P)—Monsignor Chrysanthos, former Greek orthodox archbishop of Athens, died late last night of heart failure. He was 67.

Chrysanthos was deposed immediately after the German occupation of Greece in April, 1941, on the grounds that his election in 1938, during the Metaxas dictatorship, had been irregular. He was succeeded by Archbishop Damaskinos.

FAIRFIELD WORKERS CONTINUE STRIKE

Fairfield, Ill., Sept. 29.—(P)—About 600 workers started a third week of idleness today after unionists voted to reject a company offer of extending their contract in effect for the past year.

The Shefford Masters Manufacturing company has said it could not meet demands of the CIO United Automobile Workers for more wages and revised pension and insurance plans due to a drop in sales. It is Fairfield's largest industry and produces auto parts.

Brooks Rap Braves 9-2, 8-0 While Bucs Knock Cardinals 7-2

Boston, Sept. 29.—(P)—The dauntless Brooklyn Dodgers squeezed past the St. Louis Cardinals into first place in the home stretch of the fierce National league race today by defeating the Boston Braves, 9-2 and 8-0.

Coupled with Pittsburgh's second successive defeat of the Cardinals, the Dodgers now lead by half a game, with two to play, both at Philadelphia. The Cards have three games left, all with the Chicago Cubs.

The second game of the damp-gray double-header was played in a drizzle and ended after five innings in semi-darkness amid much comic horse-play by the Braves.

Roe, Newcombe Shine
Superlative pitching by Preacher Roe and Don Newcombe plus plenty of hefty hitting, including three-run homers by Carl Fuhrle and Duke Snider, accomplished what looked last Sunday like the impossible. Then it was the Phillies beat the Dodgers, 5-3 and sent them a game and half behind the Cardinals.

The last time the Dodgers were in front in the National league was on Aug. 16, and the margin was only half a game. The Dodgers and the Cardinals were tied on Aug. 19, but from then on it has been St. Louis in front.

The standings tonight:

Team	W	L	Pct.	GB
Brooklyn	96	56	.6316	—
St. Louis	95	56	.6291	1
Boston	95	57	.6217	2

Although neither game was a real contest, no one can say the Braves didn't try. They started their two pitching acts, Warren Spahn and John Cain, and the Dodgers promptly knocked both out of the box.

Spahn went out in the fourth inning of the first game soon after Snider knocked the ball into the right field "fury box" with Gil Hodges and Roy Campanella on base. Spahn was trying for his 21st victory.

Sain fled even quicker. Pee Wee Reese, Jackie Robinson, Gene Hermanski, and Hodges all belted him for singles in the first inning of the second game, and he walked Spider Jorgensen in the bargain. Five runs were charged against him.

DICKSON DOWNS CARDS
Pittsburgh, Sept. 29.—(P)—Little Murry Dickson, who helped pitch the St. Louis Cardinals into the world series in 1946, may have knocked them out of it this year.

Dickson pitched the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 7-2 victory over his former mates today and it knocked them out of first place in the National league. The Brooklyn Dodgers took over the top rung by sweeping a doubleheader from the Braves in Boston, 9-2 and 8-0.

A rousing four-run Pirate outburst against starter Gerald Staley and Howie Pollet in the sixth inning helped seal St. Louis' doom, and paved the way for Dickson's fifth triumph of the year over the flighty Redbirds.

The big blow of the frame was delivered by Monte Basgall, a former Dodger farmhand. The sophomore second baseman slammed relief pitcher Pollet's first pitch into the right field corner to send the second and third runs of the inning over the plate. When Red Schoendienst threw past the plate, Basgall raced home with the fourth run.

Walk, 2 Singles Rode Staley
A walk to Ralph Kiner and singles by Wally Westlake and Pete Castiglione had routed Staley, put the Bucs in front, 2-1, and brought Pollet to the scene.

The pestiferous Pirates added two insurance runs off Ted Wilks in the eighth when, following a walk to Johnny Hopp, Wally Westlake walked his 23rd home run over the scoreboard in left.

The Cards scored their runs in the first and last innings. Between those rounds, Dickson limited them to two harmless hits and retired 12 men in succession until Rocky Nelson doubled with one out in the ninth inning. He scored on a one-bagger by pinch hitter Bill Howerton, but the Cards' last chance faded when Steve Bilko, another pinch hitter, watched a third strike to end the game.

For three innings it looked like Dickson was going to suffer another one of those heart-breaking early season defeats that has held his record down to 12-14. A scratch single by Stan Musial and a two-bagger by Enos Slaughter with two away in the first inning had given the Cards a 1-0 advantage.

Puerto Rico's white population is estimated at between 70 and 75 per cent.

FRIEND OF THE RIVERBOATS

By Cecil Tendick

When every pilot on the river whistles for a lady, she must have something. Mrs. Edwin L. Rhoads of Elsie, Ill., has friendliness and a sincere interest in the river, and everybody on it.

Anytime, day or night, Mrs. Rhoads, Mickey to the riverfolks, will race the 75 yards from her combination gift shop-home to the water's edge. If a whistle tells her a boat's coming through. During the day she'll give them a distinctive wave as the craft passes the tiny valley which pierces the stately limestone cliffs lining the eastern shore of the Mississippi river. At night she uses a flashlight to blink a friendly greeting. Then she returns to her study to record the event in a river log, now nine years old.

"Every time I hear a steamboat's whistle or a diesel boat's horn, it's a thrill," she exclaimed.

Every pilot has his own version of what is appropriate to blow to a lady. Usually she can identify the boat before she gets out of the front door. She has a record of nearly every whistle and horn on the river. The best whistle, she says, is on the steamboat Alexander Mackenzie, a low E-B-F sharp. The Hugh C. Blaskie of Alton has the best horn. It's low D-G-B flat.

Born Magarie Cunningham in Charleston, Mo., she moved to St. Louis with her parents. She was known as Mickey Cunningham when she was in the chorus of the Mury Opera. Later she married, moved east, and returned to Elsie in October, 1939, with her husband and son, Edwin, Jr.

A powerful short-wave set is in her study. She listens to the conversation between river pilots and sometimes they talk to her, often asking her to phone some relative or friend. She can't answer them, though, for regulations forbid a shore installation on ship channels, excepting certain approved units.

She has trouble with the Coast Guard when its boats took over the river, and she's still a little peeved with them. For a long time she had a nun and a can buoy, discarded but freshly painted, tied to the pillars of her front porch. The Coast Guard came and took them away.

Mickey was unhappy about her loss. Capt. Murphy Smith of the U.S. Engineers brought two buoys, tied them to the porch and announced they were both spare, that they were safe above high water and that they should not be moved. And they've been there ever since, although Capt. Smith has died.

Everybody on the river knows Mickey of Elsie. Her friendly salute is a warm, personal moment in a river trip.

$526,677 Given To U. Of I. In Grants During 1948-'49

Chicago, Sept. 29.—(P)—Gifts and grants to the University of Illinois during 1948-1949 totaled $526,677, President George D. Stoddard announced today at a meeting of university trustees.

The items included a wide field of research subjects and scholarships. Among them was a $50,000 grant from the American Cancer Society for construction of an exhibit at the Chicago Museum of Science and Industry.

Largest single course of funds was the United States public health service, which gave the university $101,590 for 13 different medical research projects. Three of these involve research with the 25-million volt betatron recently installed at the college of medicine for the study and treatment of cancer.

Stoddard announced the appointment of Robert B. Hudson, 44, director of education and opinion broadcasts for the Columbia broadcasting system, as head of the radio department in the school of journalism. He succeeds Joseph Wright, who will devote full time to his duties as head of the public information department. Wright has held this post 30 years.

NEW CONSTRUCTION STILL BOOMING—The chart above, based on figures from the Departments of Commerce and Labor, shows trends of new construction in the United States to mid-year 1949. Total estimated new construction in July, 1949, was valued at $1,913,000,000, compared to $1,874,000,000 for July, 1948. This represents an increase of more than 2% per cent over June, 1949. Private building gained somewhat more than seasonally in July, and public construction somewhat less. Monthly averages for years since 1939 are given at left in the chart. New construction for this year appears well on the way to matching 1948's record monthly average value of $1,563,000,000.

Worker Crushed In Rock Slide At Peabody Mine

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 29.—(P)—Collapse of timbering in a coal mine where a stubborn fire has burned six weeks killed one of the 23 men fighting the blaze and injured eight others last night.

The accident occurred in Peabody Peerless mine No. 59. About 250 coal diggers were evacuated without loss of life when the fire broke out Aug. 16. The fire has smoldered—under control—ever since.

Fatally crushed in the mishap was Robert L. Johnson, 39, of nearby Sherman.

Peabody's division superintendent, Alec Colquhoun of Taylorville, said rock above a portion of the burned out tunnel dislodged.

"A sizeable piece of rock more than likely fell from the top or side and kicked the timber supports out," Colquhoun said. This brought down more rock, which descended on Johnson and miners working near him.

Five of the injured required hospitalization. They were Charles Mostaka, 45; Anthony Merrick, 49; Theodore Petrilli, 60, and Frank Meneghetti, 53, all of Springfield, and John Porter, 40, of Athens.

Merrick, pinned in the debris for more than an hour, was taken to Memorial hospital with a possible hip fracture.

The Peerless mine is two miles northeast of Springfield.

American 4-H Girls Sample Farm Life Overseas

VISITING FARMERS: Evelyn Haberman, of Heizer, Kans. (center, with camera) jokes with fellow 4-H members as they headed for Europe to learn about farm life abroad. With half her visit over, Miss Haberman finds Dutch houses "very different."

By RICHARD KLEINER
NEA Staff Correspondent

New York—(NEA)—Two American 4-H girls are discovering there is a lot more to Holland than dikes, wooden shoes and tulips. There is, for example, a desert called "gort," and a little booklet given to farmers which tells them exactly what they can and cannot do.

The two, spending the summer on farms in the Netherlands under the sponsorship of the International Farm Youth Exchange, will probably remember "gort" and that booklet long after the other memories

Jade, Evelyn Haberman of Heizer, Kans., and Josephine Daines of Logan, Utah, tell of their experiences in long letters to NEA Service.

The booklet made the deepest impression on Miss Daines, staying on a farm in the province of Groningen. "Perhaps I should mention," she writes, "that all is regulated. The farmer has a good-sized little book which says states all that he may do and may not do. The wages, working hours, absences, holidays and all else are stated. For instance, he read one little item that said if the brother or sister of a laborer is married, the laborer must be free to attend the wedding that day, and with pay."

The physical set-up of Dutch farms amazed Miss Haberman, who wrote that "the house is very different from ours. The house and barn are built together and are connected by a large hall. Everything is in the barn—livestock, feed, machinery, car and shop. It seems strange to drive up to the barn instead of the house when going to another farm. Then, to get to the house, one either goes through the barn, or along a path beside it."

Both girls found Dutch eating a novel experience. They referred to breakfast and supper as "bread meals" in which the family eats thick slices of bread, and various spreads, with a knife and fork.

"If you want to try some good bread," try the coarse rye bread, or perhaps you've heard it called black bread. I'm trying to figure out how to get some of this bread when I get home.

The noon meal, though, is a heavy one. The main dish, usually of meat, is accompanied by huge bowls of potatoes and a creamed vegetable, often cabbage.

Miss Haberman liked the Dutch desserts. "One is called 'gort,'" she says, "and is barley cooked in buttermilk and eaten with sugar. Another is called pop—it is sour milk (almost like cottage cheese) and is eaten with rusk and sugar. It is better with fresh fruit."

The traditional cleanliness of the Dutch is not exaggerated, the American girls discovered.

"The dusting, the sweeping and vacuuming are done quite thoroughly every day if it is necessary or not. It's a wonder the windows don't weaken because of the numerous washings," says Miss Daines. But she found some faults, too, adding, "I can't understand why these things are so clean and the food is put away in the cellar without ever being covered nor the one dishtowel only washed on washday."

"Monday is washday," reports Miss Haberman. "We wash by hand. The clothes are soaked and boiled on Saturday and Sunday, and Monday days are washdays, rain or shine. This last Monday was rainy and it was the middle of the week before the clothes were finally all dry."

One problem that has bothered Miss Haberman is that of the narrow, twisting roads that the type of country demands.

"When traveling," she writes, "a person is continually going around curves. This certainly does not help me in trying to keep my directions straight. I have been completely turned around since my arrival here."

Concluding her letter, Miss Daines wrote some philosophical observations. "Since I've been here, I've really learned to appreciate my family and my American way of life. These people have good intentions but are so tied to the ways of the past it's hard for them to break away. To me, they are living 50 years ago and it has been very difficult to go back."
